A Scheme of Chances of Insurance

On the Lottery authorized by Law for raising 2250 dollars, for the Lexington Lodge, No. 25; to raise the same sum for the purpose of repairing the streets, building stone bridges, paving, &c. the town of Lexington.

THE trustees of the town of Lexington, as the representatives of the inhabitants, submit the following scheme to their constituents, and to the citizens of the State at large.

The inhabitants of the town, whether merchants, tradesmen or mechanics, and the farmers, planters and labourers of the country mutually depend upon, and assist each other. The inhabitants of the town have something to dispose of to the cultivator of the land, which he cannot manufacture for himself at the same price; on the other hand, as his occupation prevents him from sowing by his own labor in the field, the produce of the country, he is compelled to receive in return, for what he has furnished to the husbandman, that produce, either in the article itself, or the price of it.

The observations are verified by the great rise in the value of landed property adjacent to the town of Lexington, in proportion to the rise of property of the same description in other parts of the State, which can only be accounted for by the rapid improvement and increase of population in the town.

The citizens of the town of Lexington, the trustees suggest that with the sums authorized by law to be collected and appropriated by them; the proceeds of seven years taxes will be sufficient to build stone bridges, to make sewers for carrying off the water, to sink wells and erect pumps (the necessity of which has been evidenced by the late calamity by fire) and to make such other repairs, as are necessary for the health, safety and convenience of their fellow citizens. What purpose the temporary repairs heretofore made, have answered, which have even extended the amount of their funds, every citizen can determine.

To the citizens of the State at large, they suggest that if increase of population is an increase of wealth; and that the increase of inhabitants who are employed in trade, merchandise or manufactures, and who cannot cultivate the earth, must increase the demand for the necessities of life, and the competition of purchasers for a foreign market; and that the proposed improvement of the town is the most likely way to procure such increase of Population.

The trade and communication between the town and the country, resembles the circulation of the blood; it is kept unobstructed in the heart, and from thence driven to warm and invigorate the most extreme parts.

The scheme they propose is, that they will issue the same number of chances of insurance, as there are tickets in the Lexington Lodge lottery, with the same numbers, and at the same price, and they will pay to the holder of a chance of the same number, as a ticket which shall draw a prize in that lottery; the same sum which his fortunate holder of the ticket shall be entitled to. The fortunate holder of chances of insurance, to be subject as the fortunate holders of tickets in that lottery, to a deduction of fifteen per centum.

be executed and observed with punctuality and the most sincere regard to good faith, on the part of the United States, I hereby make known the premises; and enjoin and require all persons bearing office Civil or Military, within the United States, and all others, citizens or inhabitants thereof or being within the same, to execute and observe the said Treaty accordingly.

TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have caused the Seal of the United States of America, to be affixed to these presents and signed the same with my hand. Done at the city of Philadelphia the twenty ninth day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and of the independence of the United States of America, the Twentieth.

G. WASHINGTON
By the President,

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

AN ACT further extending the time for receiving on loan the domestic debt of the UNITED STATES.

§ 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the term for receiving on loan that part of the domestic debt of the United States, which has not been subscribed, in Pursuance of the provisions heretofore made by law for that purpose, be, and the same is hereby further extended until the thirty first day of December next, on the same terms and conditions, as are contained in the act entitled "An Act making provision for the debt of the United States:" Provided, that the book for receiving the said subscriptions shall be opened only at the treasury of the United States.

§ 2. AND be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful to reimburse so much of the principle of the debt or stock, which may be subscribed, pursuant to this act, as will make the reimbursement thereof equal in proportion & degree, to that of the same stock subscribed antecedent to the present year, and the said reimbursement shall be made at the expiration of the quarter in which such debt or stock shall be subscribed, and pursuant to the rules and conditions prescribed by the act, entitled "An Act making further provision for the support of public credit, and for the redemption of the public debt."

§ 3. Also be it further enacted, that such of the creditors of the United States as have not subscribed, and shall not subscribe to the said loan, shall nevertheless, receive during the year 1796 a rate per centum on the amount of such of their demands as have been registered or as shall be registered at the treasury, conformably to the directions in the act entitled "An Act making provision for the debt of the United States," equal to the interest which would be payable to them as subscribing creditors.

Approved February the 5th, 1796.

NEW-YORK, March 4.
Extract of a letter dated St. Croix, February 3, 1796, to a gentleman in this city.

"For your information and government, we mention that orders have lately been issued by the English, to their ships of war and privateers to take all neutral vessels bound to or returning from Dutch ports, and carry them to their own for adjudication: and under the strength of which several Danish ships have lately been captured."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 27.
Extract of a letter to a gentleman in this city, dated February 14.

"The French it appears are forbid to buy ships for war, and the English are allowed to buy horses for war. One nation has had every thing denied to them but what was regulated with a view on the slave; the other every thing granted without music. One requires a cargo of friendly words for friendly actions; the other a cargo of friendly actions for perpetual unfriendly kicks and thumps. Which is most valuable?"

NORFOLK, Feb. 15.
We understand the orders issued by the governor of this State to detain the horses that were shipped for the West Indies, are countenanced by the executive of the United States.

ALEXANDRIA, March 3.
The legislature of Georgia, now in session, have passed a law repealing that of the preceding one, making sale of a certain part of the western territory of that State, together with an order that the obnoxious act in question should be publicly burnt. What effects the repealing law will produce must be left to time to discover; but the case is certainly a view of a legislature declaring itself not bound by its engagements, and at the same time enacting laws to enforce the performance of individual contracts.

By an arrival at Charleston from Guadalupe, it is stated that the British fleet had not arrived on the 22d of January, but was daily expected.—Papers received at Baltimore from Jamaica of the 23th of January, make no mention of the fleet.

Extract of a letter from an American captain at Cape Nicholas Mole, to a respectable gentleman in Baltimore, dated February 9, 1796.

"I am sorry to see the number of Americans that are pressed here; mates and hands, all who have no professions go. It makes no difference with them. There are now in this port about 150 Americans on board the 44 gun ship called the Severn. The Scorpion sloop of war arrived here last night, with three prizes, conveyed Capt Hall to Jamaica for trial.

TRENTON, March 5.
Captain Scottish arrived at Philadelphia on Wednesday last from Lisbon, which place he left the 24th of December, informs, that Col. Humphreys had announced to him, in company with a number of American captains, that the French had recaptured the Rhine, and obtained a complete victory over the Austrian army.

Later papers announced that the French had captured the British at the Island of St. Vincent, &c. This account is confirmed by the arrival of the Schooner Washington, Capt. Warring, at New-York, 23 days from Nivis, who informs, that the same report prevailed at Nivis when he left it.

Lexington, April 9.
On Monday last, the Rev. H. Toulmin, as President of the Transylvania Seminary, addressed to the board of Trustees, a letter of resignation, of which the following is a copy:

Twelve months having elapsed since I was last appointed to the presidency of the Transylvania Seminary; I think it proper to remind the board, that the term for which I was then elected expires in the beginning of October next,—or rather the 23d of September, as a quarter will terminate on that day, and it will be scarcely worth while to begin a new one. I am the more ready to apprise the board of the time, it devolves upon them to choose a president, because as I feel no inclination to have it understood that I renew the offer of my services, I wish to afford the trustees a sufficient time to enquire after the most proper person to fill the post with which I am honored.

At the same time, I think it incumbent on me to state the reasons of my resignation. I will do it with freedom.

In the first place, then, I regard the salary connected with the office, as an inadequate recompense for the services required.

Secondly, a late act of the legislature has rendered the presidency of the Transylvania Seminary, upon the present plan of filling it from year to year, an office too precarious, for a man to direct his views towards it as a permanent object. To require that every vacancy in the board shall be supplied by the unanimous vote of thirteen trustees,—to require that no president nor professor shall be elected or paid but by the same unanimous vote of thirteen trustees,—when whole days have often been spent in collecting together seven members of discordant sentiments;—is to forbid the approach of every man of spirit and independence.

But, thirdly, certain circumstances attending my first nomination to the office, have from that time I perceive been uniformly made to operate against the institution. I never solicited the appointment. I never took,—nor do I believe that any of my friends ever took one improper step to have the appointment made.

I incurred considerable expence in moving to this country with the view of filling an office which I thought might eventually become an object. I did flatter myself that by attention to the duties of my station,—by respectability of character,—by quiet and inoffensive manners, I should silence the tongue of detraction and enervate the struggles of opposition.

I fear that I have been disappointed.

I have received indeed handsome and official testimonials of my own diligence and of the proficiency of the pupils;—but still I am told that there are those who are dissatisfied with my appointment; that there are those, who, failing of more substantial grounds of objection, have condescended to awaken and to employ national and religious prejudices.

A new era in the history of the seminary is now commencing. It is now to be tried whether after all the past difficulties in assembling a board, whether after all those striking instances which have been exhibited of that discordance of sentiment so incident to the frail state of humanity,—it is now to be tried whether thirteen hearts can be animated with an hitherto unexampled ardour in prosecuting the business of the institution,—whether thirteen can assemble twice a year and be all of one heart and one soul. Far be it from me to be any obstruction to a change so desirable. I withdraw. I will be no obstruction to unanimity. It shall not be on my account that a single vote is given dissentient from the will of the majority.

The majority,—the whole of the board, I trust, will in their proceedings consequent upon my resignation be actuated by the single consideration of what is RIGHT;—and unmoved by that clamour of discontent, which is too often confounded with the voice of the people,—will in rigid regard to their oath, nominate a successor to me without favor, affection or partiality.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your very respectful servant,
H. TOULMIN.

The Senate of this United States have unanimously approved the Spanish and Algerine treaties.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Armagh Ireland to his friend in Baltimore, dated November 3, 1795.

"FOR some time past that part of the county of Armagh, called Loughalee Black Water Fort, towards Cockhill, Talbridge &c. had been in a state of infestation, by a constant engagement between the people and the military. The former, assembling in great bodies from the neighbouring country, threaten to destroy all before them, and if they gain the day, to divide the lands among them. Mr. Lawten, of Fairlaw, with the regiment of North Mayo militia, marched on Friday last, with two pieces of cannon, and attacked a body of people, who had taken post at Black Water Fort, at a place called Mackery. The firing was brisk on both sides for the space of two hours, when at last the Republicans were obliged to give way, and retreated across the Black Water, into the county Tyrone, where they have taken post in a strong situation, near Carral, where they are determined to make a stand. The havoc was prodigious on both sides. The militia had three officers, and 132 men killed, and 20 men and five officers wounded. There was upwards of 500 of the other party killed wounded & drowned, in crossing the river. We hear that a large body of men from Belfast, Mallemena, &c. is on the point to join the republicans, headed, by old and experienced volunteer officers, with a large quantity of field pieces, ammunition &c. All is confusion here. How happy must you be in America, where you draw the breath of liberty and happiness!—I feel nothing but the appearance of desolation to this once happy land. When or how it will end, God only knows.—10,000 militia are now stationed at Verner's bridge, to slide the water; and General Conyngham, has been appointed commander in chief."

OLIVER EDWORTH of Connecticut is appointed Chief Justice of the U. S. in the room of WILLIAM CUSHING, resigned.

Notice.
THE co-partnership of ELLISON WINNERS, and Co. having expired, they offer for SALE the following property:— A complete and well-chosen assortment of DRY GOODS, well adapted to the present and approaching season, by wholesale or retail, at a very low advance. Also, an assortment of GROCERIES.
A two story Back House on Main-street, an excellent situation for business,—that valuable and well known tract or parcel of LAND, situated at the mouth of Tate's creek, 15 miles from Lexington, on the main road leading to Madison county house, containing 1000 acres; 200 of which is excellent bottom, the remainder hilly, but well timbered; 80 acres cleared, and five acres in timothy meadow, and twenty more can be made and watered with very little expense.— On the upper part of this tract is erected a MERCHANT and GUEST MILL—the situation is perfectly secure either from back water from the river, or floods in the creek.—The house is fifty feet by forty with four floors.—The merchant mill has a sixteen feet pitch back water wheel, double gear, French Burr Stones; with bowling, balling, screening, fanning and packing work, by water.—The Grist Mill has a 12 feet waterwheel, over-shot and double gear: the whole new and in complete order.— The water empties from these mills into a pond, whereon stands a saw mill in good repair, and a new hem-mill.—There is also on the premises, a new Rammed Dyeing House, kitchen and store house with a number of useful cabins, and a large and never failing spring convenient for a ROSE-WALK covered 250 feet, and may be extended over a level piece of ground 150 fathoms with every apparatus suitable for manufacturing cordage; a young bearing peach orchard; a young bearing peach orchard; also a number of bearing apple trees.

A DISTILLERY within fifty yards of the mills, with over head waters.—Three STILLS containing about 375 gallons, with every thing necessary for distilling.
A WAGON, with four good horses a few head of cattle, and a large stock of hogs.

As the above property is situated in a thick settled fertile part of the country, where the greatest abundance of produce may be collected, and the land abounds with good timber for boat building, and a very convenient port for that purpose on the bank of the river a Kentucky—it is evident that boats for the Mississippi trade, can be built and loaded at the mouth of Tate's creek with more convenience, less expense and greater dispatch, than at any other landing in the State.

The mills are now well supplied with seasoned flower barrels, and there is six boats on the stocks, that may be finished in a short time.— The purchaser can have choice of two or three if required.—The payments will be made easy, and the greater part received annually in produce.

J. WINNERS,
Lexington, Dec 24, 1795.

N. B. All persons indebted to E. W. & Co. are once more requested to call and pay off their respective balances without delay.

TAKEN up by the subscriber, in Scott county, on Lexington pike, a black race mare, two years old next spring, some white hairs at her forehead, no brand, about 13 hands high, appraised to $1.

John Garnet.
Jan. 20, 1796.

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that on the fourth day of April next, in pursuance of an order of the court of Mason county, I will attend the commissioners appointed by said court, at the improvement of Clough Overton, alias of William Barclay, near the North fork of Licking about one mile above the bridge over said fork, then and there to take and perpetuate the testimony of sundry witnesses for the purpose of establishing said improvement.

Joseph Barry.

TO BE SOLD OR RENTED
FOR TWO YEARS,
A CRIST AND SAW MILL
IN good repair, on Salt river, about eight miles below Harrodsburgh and three from Kentucky river. Also fifty acres of well timbered land adjoining the mill, about ten acres under good fence, two of which are cleared and in grass, with a good cabin and stable; the terms may be known by applying to the subscriber on the premises.
April 8, 1796. ALEX. M. HANAN.

NOTICE.
ALL persons having demands against John May deceased, either for money due to them, or for contracts payable in lands, are requested to transmit to the subscriber a copy of their demands or contracts.
All who are indebted to said John May, either for money due to him, or contracts for land purchased from him, or for locating lands in the State of Kentucky, are requested to make payment, and to perform their specific contracts immediately. The said deceased by his last will and testament, bequeathed his lands to the payment of indebtedness, and the subscriber will make it the first object of his administration to provide for the same, with as much dispatch as the nature and circumstances of the estate will admit of. And whereas the said John May died with a pregnant wife, and she is now on her passage down the river Ohio, many papers and much information respecting the same, is probably the subscriber may need the information of others in some matters relative to the negotiation of the deceased, in the western country, and he will thankfully receive any communications which gentlemen acquainted with the concerns of the deceased, may think proper to make.

I have appointed Mr. Thomas Carnel-ley agent in Kentucky to receive and forward all communications in that State, alluded to above. As the want of a legal representative in the death of Mr. May, has obstructed all operations relative to his transactions and no doubt to the injury of many, I now intend that all persons concerned may bring forward their business immediately.

DAVID ROSS, Administrator.
Richmond, January 22, 1796.

P. S. Letters directed to me in Lexington upon the above said business (postage paid) shall be duly attended to by THO. CARNELLEY.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all who may be interested therein, that on the first Monday in May next, I will, in pursuance of an order of the court of Bourbon county, attend the commissioners appointed by said court at the beginning of said court, to settle John's claim of 1100 acres on the dividing ridge between the waters of Lexington's fork and Main Licking, between the Upper and Lower Blue Licks, roads, and at the place known as the beginning of one of the old Ohio company's surveys; then and
of certain witnesses relative to said beginning corner.

Joseph Barry.

Notice to whom it may concern.
WHEREAS the commissioners appointed to settle the division between the several proprieties of one hundred and ninety thousand acres of land, the property of Richard Ken-derson and others, known under the firm of Richard Henderson & Co. living in that part of the territory from the Ohio company called Powell's Valley, will on the 25th day of May next, proceed to make location at the office of Charles McClung in Knoxville.

CHARLES MCCLUNG,
RICHARD HENDERSON,
JOSEPH GILLER.

CHARLES MCCLUNG.
Knoxville, March 23, 1795.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that the heirs of Andrew Hannan deceased claim a preemption of 1000 acres of land, as assignees of George Smith, in Madison county on Silver creek at St. Alb's fort, and on the west side of said creek, any person claiming land that will in any way interfere with the above claim, are notified to attend at the said land, on the 29th day of April next, at which time and place I shall proceed to raise the testimony of Spence Bowers and others to perpetuate testimony respecting the several calls in said Smith's certificate, with the commissioners, agreeable to a law of this State in that case made and provided.

I shall also attend with commissioners on Wednesday the 12th May, in a cabin called John Clarke's, on the middle fork of Clinch-man's creek, in Greene county, to take the testimony of an entry made for 400 acres, in the name of John Smith, in the year 1784, to perpetuate the testimony of the several proprietors & others respecting said entry & cabin.

I shall also attend with commissioners on Friday the 12th of June next, at a big Beaver pond on Robertson's creek, in a cabin called John Clarke's, on the middle fork of Clinch-
man's creek, in Greene county, to take the testimony of an entry of 500 acres made for Samuel Henry in the year 1780, which testimony I mean to perpetuate agreeably to a law of this State.

WILLIAM HENRY.
March 31, 1795.

Mr. BRADFORD:
MY Mills were burnt last night, and must be consequently have been done to some of my enemies, as there was no fire in the place nor any where near it, and as I have received private injuries of that kind, I before, and their malice is not to be thought of. I think it will be useful for me to attempt rebuild them. I therefore propose to sell 400 acres of LAND to include said mills, ware, and other house, boat-yard and ferry, meadow, peach and apple orchards, &c.
The land is well timbered with oak, and poplar, a great part first rate and lies well for cultivation—the landing is the most convenient, perhaps, of any in the Kentucky, both for boat-building and ware-houses—there is two good ware-houses at present, with a house for weighing; also stables, &c.
The under part of the mill-house and dam remains unurt. The mills may be rebuilt with half the expense or less than they formerly cost—it is about one mile from the mills to the river, and in high water boats may come up to the mill; they land on Boon's creek near the mouth, which is essential to any business in this part of the country, and about twelve miles from Lexington. The way to the river is equal to any on the Kentucky.—The title to the land is indisputable. Any person willing to purchase may apply to the subscriber on the premises, for terms, &c.

THE DAY'S MILE.
PARIS Dec. 6.

Yesterday the Council of Five Hundred were informed of important advantages obtained by the army of Italy.—The following is an extract of the narrative addressed to the executive council by the representative of the people Feyta, commissary of the government near that army.

"The Austrian army is completely routed. On the 20 of Fri-maire, (November 20,) the attack was made in the whole extent of 1 line, it lasted from 5 o'clock morning till evening. The Austrians were repulsed vigorously, every where French valor triumphed over the obstacles which nature and art laid in their way. The Austrian army is reduced to one half of its former number. They have lost their cannon a great number of colours they had 3000 men killed, and the number of prisoners is so great that we cannot yet find time to count them. One word will enable you to judge of the number.
At Albenga only, 4000 rations of bread were distributed to the prisoners that passed there. There will be for some time to come no Austrian army in Italy. We learn this moment, that the French army has entered Finale where they found immense magazines."

Thursday last the senate of the United States took up the report of their committee on the subject of the charges of piracy brought forward by the legislature of Kentucky, against Humphrey B. Smith a member in the senate from that State. The report states a want of jurisdiction in the case. There was no decision.

BALTIMORE, March 12

Capt. PERRY, who arrived here Friday in the frig. This day from Jeremy, informs that a few days previous to his sailing, a British transport called the Carrier, Capt. Reynolds arrived there, who prelaid a man from every American vessel then in port, but nothing fished there in made another attempt, the Americans resolving to prevent this second insult on their flag, collected together on board the Liza, of Baltimore, (the being the first ship R. came along side of) and ordered the boat to be kept off, whereupon Capt. R. fired on the schooner but in return met with a warm shower of stones, handspikes and cowards, which obliged them to fly off.

In short time he returned with his boat and 20 men, armed with guns, swords and cutlasses, and was again drove off, after killing one man, and wounding another on board the Liza, and cutting away her main shrouds with shot, in return for which Capt. R. had 6 men killed and several wounded.
